Handelsblatt names MHP as top IT service provider

- Handelsblatt Research Institute (HRI) survey of 3,300 employees from 580 companies in the IT industry
- MHP is one of Germany's foremost IT service providers
- Special recommendation in the automotive sector

Ludwigsburg – A survey published by Handelsblatt on March 25, 2024, names MHP as one of Germany's leading IT service providers. MHP was also selected for a special recommendation in the automotive field.

Markus Wambach, COO and member of the management board at MHP, said: "Thanks to our outstanding team, we are able to offer our customers tailor-made consulting services and products, as well as our expertise at the highest level. It's great that this is recognized within the industry too. We also see this result as a call to continually maintain and improve our quality."

About the survey: For the selection, the Handelsblatt Research Institute (HRI) surveyed in advance more than 3,300 employees from 580 companies in the IT industry about the most renowned companies in the respective consulting or activity segment. It excluded voting cartels and self-assessments in order to achieve a fair evaluation. The IT service providers needed to receive a minimum number of independent recommendations in order to count as one of the most renowned companies. In addition to general recommendations, the Institute also asked for specific recommendations for certain sectors including finance, insurance, and the automotive industry, as well as for certain key areas of activity – such as artificial intelligence and software maintenance – which Handelsblatt mentions separately.
